

Design a Party Invite

Our birthday parties are really popular and take place at Longridge every day of the week. But we don't have any Longridge birthday party invites to offer! Would you like to design one? The invites need to show people what Longridge activities are like, so:

Adventure – Exciting – Fun

The winning designs will be sent to all those that book a party with us to use as their Invitations and will have the name of the designer on them. To enter, use this form to submit your design to us either by email or on paper. The competition is open to all Primary School children and there will be a winning design for each of the categories below, you may enter as many categories as you like.

Closing date for entries is July 31st; when we will pick the invite for each birthday party activity that best sums up Longridge and that activity.

It costs nothing to enter and the designer of the invitation that wins each category will win a free Activity Birthday Party for up to 12 friends (food would be extra).

Circle the categories you are entering:
